2 Timothy 1:5 | Jars of Clay, our October devotional

> "I am reminded of your sincere faith, which first dwelt in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am convinced is in you as well."
>
> 2 TIMOTHY 1:5 (BSB)

Today is Homecoming, and Paul's words fit the day. Timothy's faith did not start with Timothy. It "first dwelt in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice" — two women the world never noticed, who handed the treasure down at home. That is how the gospel has always traveled: from one clay jar to the next. Someone carried it to you — a grandparent, a Sunday school teacher, a friend who would not give up on you. This morning we welcome Caleb and Brittany Hendon, who carry the same treasure into Peru's Amazon basin and train believers to tell God's story aloud. Thank God today for the ones who handed it to you — and ask Him who you will hand it to.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Faithful God, thank You for every ordinary vessel who carried Your treasure to me. Make me faithful to hand it to the next generation. Amen.
